NOTES ON CHORDS

Most versions of Moldavian Hora are based on the transposed transcription in the Compleat Klezmer, credited to V. Bel'f in 1913. The Compleat Klezmer version has a minor chord in bars 19 and 27, however the V. Belufa version on which this transcription is based seems to have a major chord here. It is ambiguous and these bars with passing chords and a some mistakes in the piano part, and these bars can be harmonised with the second degree 'in mode' or lowered to imply major or minor respectively; however, given the 'in mode' second degree in the following bars, a major reading of the chord feels more appropriate
